The face of the note contains the following text: 'Commemorating the 60th birthday of King Letsie III - July 17th, 2023 - Kingdom of Lesotho'. The back of the note includes a windowed, 3D security strip (RollingStar® Moon) which displays microtext ('CBL 200') and changes colour from lilac to yellow when the note is tilted.

The traditional Basotho straw hat on the right of the face is printed in SPARK® Live security ink, and changes colour from lilac to yellow, depending on the angle of view. The face also includes two horizontal embossed bars, added for the benefit of the visually impaired (on the left and right). Other security features: a see-through register, a latent image, microtext.
